IOBGA POLICY MANUAL

Policy is defined as a definite course of action adopted and pursued by an organization. As a course of action, it embodies guiding principles and ethics considered prudent, advantageous, and expedient in service of the organization.

This manual is provided to the membership as a compilation of policies that have been adopted by the organization as it has evolved. They are the results of the history of the International organization as expressed in bylaws, minutes of meetings, executive decisions, and actions taken. This manual, as with the policies themselves, is more the dynamic representation of growth, than merely a rehash of, 'this is the way we did it when...'. Thus, the manual can never be complete unto itself, but must constantly be a reflection of the interaction of policy with 'today' and the good judgment of our members and leaders. While focused on the guiding principles and practices of the International organization, we have tried to demonstrate how these policies can be applied at the local level.

IOBGA MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Auxiliary shall be to support the activities of the International Order of the Blue Gavel, to promote fellowship among the members of the Auxiliary and their spouses or companions, to serve as group support in time of need, and to work for the benefit of the yachting community in general.

IOBGA ORGANIZATION

The primary work of the International Order of the Blue Gavel Auxiliary is at the Chapter or District level. Each District is encouraged to develop activities and programs that foster fellowship and service to the local community. The IOBGA International Board meets with all IOBGA members present at Regional and Annual Meetings. These meetings allow for the exchange of ideas between the various Districts and Chapters.

IOBGA STRUCTURE

The organization has a defined structure. Districts are geographic groupings of Chapters (individual clubs), that are chartered by the IOBG Executive Committee. Several Districts grouped geographically together are represented on our Board of Directors by a Regional Director. The IOBGA regional groupings correspond to the IOBG regional groupings. An IOBG District requires a minimum of five Chapters and fifty members. A District may be formed from ‘scratch’ or may ‘split off’ from a larger District with the approval of the IOBG Executive Committee upon application.

Where ever there is an IOBG District, there is encouragement to obtain an IOBGA charter. As the IOBGA is not as old as the IOBG, we do not have as many members as the IOBG. While almost every IOBG District now has an IOBGA charter, there are very few IOBGA Chapter charters. Therefore, the majority of our activities center occur at the district level. Spouses of Past Commodores in Districts without an IOBGA charter, may join the International level, as members at large.

IOBGA AUTHORITY TO FUNCTION

The IOBGA By-laws as approved by the IOBG Executive Committee, serve as our authority to function, use the Blue Gavel name, and bear our logo. Districts and Chapters can adopt the International By-laws or develop their own in accordance and consistent with the IOBGA International By-laws. Rules for amending the By-laws are defined in Article X of that document. The International By-laws include sections entitled ‘Articles’ which serve the following functions:

- I. Define the name of the organization.
- II. Define the organization’s purpose.
- III. Bestow authority to function.
- IV. Define requirements for IOBGA membership.
- V. Define the rules for establishing and paying International dues.
- VI. Describe the officers of the Executive Committee and the members of the Board of Directors including their roles and terms of office for the International organization.
- VII. Describe the Standing Committees of the organization; Nominating, Audit and Historian.
- VIII. Define the rules for holding and conducting meetings of the organization.
- IX. Describe the IOBGA emblem.
- X. Define requirements for amending the By-laws.

Attached to the by-laws are the Standing Rules, which can be amended as required by the Board of Directors, and as approved by a majority of those attending the annual meeting. The Standing Rules currently address membership, dues, voting privileges, charter applications and committees.

IOBGA INTERNATIONAL OFFICERS - ELECTED

The following descriptions are for the officers at the International level. Districts and Chapters are encouraged to pattern their officers after the International. We highly recommend that you detail recurring duties for each of your officers, including the specific timing, if tied to a particular event or time of year, as is unique to your District.

The IOBGA Executive Committee is comprised of the Immediate Past President, the President (who acts as chairman), the President Elect, the (2) Vice President(s), the Secretary, and the Treasurer. The Executive Committee meets to conduct the business of the organization. While special meetings of the International Executive Committee may be called by the President or a majority of the Board of Directors, the EC usually meets three times a year, concurrent with the IOBG Regional Meetings.

The IOBGA Board of Directors is the governing body of the IOBGA. It is comprised of the IOBGA Executive Committee (as defined above), plus the Regional Directors. International Past Presidents in attendance are each allowed a vote at any International meeting per Article VIII.6 of the By-laws. Because the IOBGA has not yet established a strong Regional organization or grown to the size where we have moved to a representative form of government through District Directors, our Board is invited to meet and vote at each of the Regional Board meetings called by the IOBGA President during the year. The board is empowered to establish bylaws, rules and regulations as deemed necessary and when consistent with the bylaws, for the administration and regulations of the IOBGA.

At the District or Chapter level, the Board of Directors may be synonymous with the Executive Committee. Some of the larger Districts choose to elect or appoint Area Vice Presidents within their Districts, each one covering a geographic group of Chapters within the District. These Vice Presidents along with the Executive Committee, comprise the IOBGA Board of Directors for that District. This helps the EC to more effectively communicate with, and coordinate the Chapters.

While the terms of succession for the Vice President(s) are not explicitly stated in the By-laws, the general policy is that the Vice President candidates be selected from the Board of Directors or have served as an executive officer at the District or Chapter level. - ensure that all membership information including names, addresses and contact information is amended as required.

The Immediate Past President also serves on the Executive Committee. Her duties are detailed in Article VI.9 and .10 of the by-laws.

The Regional Directors are the liaison between the Executive Committee and the Districts. The RD's promote attendance at meetings and vote on behalf of the region at the IOBGA Board meetings. They present reports to the Executive Committee quarterly, concurrent with the board meetings, summarizing their activities and communicating their region's position on matters before the board when required. They are also encouraged to submit articles for publication in the quarterly IOBGA Newsletter.

The Regional Directors are expected to stay in touch with the District Presidents in their region and provide them with support when questions arise over governing their organizations. they provide an escalation point to the Board for issues where the guidelines provided by the By-laws or policy manual are not clear. The RD's may also assist the Board, when required, in reminding Districts to submit their dues per Article V of the By-laws. The RD's should attend the Annual Board and General Membership Meetings at the end of October as a minimum, and some of the Regional meetings.

IOBGA OFFICERS - APPOINTED

The International level has appointed positions. At the District/Chapter level, you may establish appointed positions as required by your organization and activities, to be filled by the President on an annual basis. Examples of positions are Supply Officer, Sunshine Officer, etc.

The Historian is appointed by the IOBGA President and is responsible for maintaining the history of the IOBGA. This includes when districts and chapters were formed, and any interesting activities or events.

The Log Editor is appointed by the IOBGA President and is responsible for compiling the IOBGA articles for the quarterly publication in the Blue Gavel Log by the log deadline. She is also responsible for;

The Membership Chairperson is appointed by the IOBGA President and is responsible for the maintenance of the membership roster.

GUIDELINES FOR ALL IOBGA OFFICERS

As a minimum, each individual must be willing and able to;

- attend all meetings as required (for International officers these are the Annual and Regional meetings);
- perform all of the required duties during the term of office;
- uphold and serve the mission of the IOBGA organization;

- immediately tender her resignation from office if personal or family matters, or health or any other factors create a situation in which she cannot perform her duties.

IOBGA MEETINGS

Regional Meetings are held two or three times per year, at the same time and in the same location as the IOBG. The goals of the Regional Meetings are to:

- n allow the executive committee to meet with the district level of the membership.
- n conduct the business of the organization.
- n provide the membership with the opportunity to participate in the conduct of the business of the organization.
- n enjoy the benefits of camaraderie and social contact.

The IOBGA Annual Meeting is held at the same time and in the same location as the IOBG. Old and new business is discussed and any motions requiring the general vote of the membership are put forward. The elections are held at this time, followed by the change of watch. Traditionally, the new officers are sworn in at the IOBG President's Ball.

A workshop is sometimes held in conjunction with the IOBGA Annual meeting. The workshop is intended to be a forum for discussing ideas such as fund raising, soliciting new members, etc. It may range from an informal round-table discussion to an invited guest speaker.

IOBGA SUCCESSION

In the event that any officer, line or elected, is prevented from advancing or completing her term of office, her successor will be appointed by the Executive Committee. Successor replacements of line officers are to be selected from those who are serving or have served on the Board of Directors whenever possible. The Executive Committee should endeavor to avoid having line officers succeed each other from the same district if at all possible.

Should a vacancy occur on the board it shall be filled as follows:

- If a Regional Director is unable to complete her term, the vacancy will be filled by the Board of Directors appointing a member to complete the term.
- If an Elected Officer is unable to complete her term, the Executive Committee shall, by a majority vote, appoint a qualified member to complete the term.

IOBGA ELECTIONS

International Officers are elected by a majority vote of IOBGA members at the annual meeting. They assume their offices upon election, and serve for two years, or until their successors are elected.

The Nominating Committee presents a recommended slate of officers to the members at the annual meeting; nominations are accepted from the floor for each elected position prior to the vote being taken. A motion may be made to ratify the slate as offered by the Nominating Committee and if approved, the vote is taken on the entire slate. Only members whose dues are current may vote. The Nominating Committee consists of the Immediate Past President who serves as Chairperson, the President, and the President Elect.

Districts and Chapters elect their officers in accordance with the by-laws. District bylaws must be in accordance with the International bylaws. Most districts establish a Nominating Committee and submit a slate of officers to their Board for approval prior to presenting it to their general membership for a vote.

HOW TO OBTAIN AN IOBGA CHARTER

Spouses within a current active IOBG Chapter or District may apply for an auxiliary charter with a minimum of four members. These members must meet the requirements for membership as set out in the IOBGA By-laws, Article VI. A charter organization should begin with at least three officers, President, Vice President and Secretary/Treasurer. As the organization grows, the executive board can be patterned after the International organization as defined below.

Charter members must complete a charter application, and obtain the signatures of the IOBG District or Chapter President, and the IOBG District Director. It is then submitted along with a cheque for the annual International dues for each member to the IOBG District Director. The IOBG District Director submits it to the IOBGA International President. (It is recommended that a copy of your application be mailed to the IOBGA Regional Director for your District also.)

Once the application is approved by the IOBGA board and signed by the IOBGA President, it is given to the IOBG Second Vice President to submit to the IOBG Executive Committee for final approval. Once approved, a Charter is sent by the IOBG Executive Secretary to the IOBG District Director to present to the new IOBGA members for signature. The original signed charter is retained by the new IOBGA organization. Copies are to be mailed back to the IOBG Executive Secretary and the IOBGA President.

IOBGA MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Membership in the IOBGA is by invitation only and should be looked upon as a privilege and as recognition of the candidate's performance. Membership in the IOBGA is extended to spouses or domestic partners/companions of approved members of the IOBG, (IOBG members in good standing), or spouses/domestic partners of deceased IOBG members. As appropriate, invitations may be extended to individuals who are deemed eligible by virtue of their deceased spouses having been qualified to become an IOBG member prior to their death. Districts are encouraged to pursue and recruit spouses of qualified Past Commodores. Membership application forms are in the back of this manual and may be duplicated for your use. Upon application, prospective new members are asked to submit International dues plus any additional local dues as determined by the Chapter and/or District.

Qualifications for membership are stipulated in Article IV of the IOBGA By-laws. District officers are responsible for ensuring that all applicants meet the required qualifications before forwarding the required information (name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, district #, spouse name, and club name) and dues to the International Treasurer along with International dues for each new applicant.

IOBGA MEMBERSHIP DUES

Dues are the financial obligation a person assumes when she joins the organization. The International dues are set by the Board of Directors. Districts/Chapters may also set dues to finance local activities.

The total annual dues must include both the International and local portions. The Districts are responsible for billing their members for their annual dues. IOBGA Districts/Chapters often bill their members at the same time as the IOBG District/Chapter, combined in a single mailing. Some Districts follow up with a telephone call as a gentle reminder, and to provide an opportunity to personally address reasons why members have chosen not to renew.

Some Districts have IOBGA bank accounts while others share with the IOBG but maintain their own ledgers. It is important that the IOBGA District Treasurer keep accurate and current records of members who have paid and when, along with each member's current contact information, and when International dues for each member are forwarded to the International Treasurer. Dues should be mailed to the International Treasurer as new members join, or current members renew for the present year.

If you are a member of an organized and active district, you must pay your dues to your District Treasurer, who is responsible for forwarding the International portion to the International Treasurer on your behalf. The local portion of the dues is retained by the IOBGA District Treasurer. If you are in an unorganized or inactive district, you may forward your dues directly to the International Treasurer. (You know who you are.)

International dues for the next year are payable at the Annual (October) Meeting and are considered delinquent after February first. Receipt of dues by the International Treasurer is the criterion as to whether or not dues are delinquent. Their receipt triggers the issuance of a membership card and inclusion in the roster. Non payment of dues by the February deadline shall be grounds for suspension of membership in IOBGA, including participation in its functions, and wearing/displaying of IOBGA insignia. Dues received after October 1, for any given year are applied to the following year's dues and the member is not considered paid for the current year. Dues received prior to September 30, are applied to the current year.

IOBGA MEMBERSHIP CARDS

Receipt of dues by the International initiates the process of issuing membership cards. Members receive their cards directly from the International Treasurer. Although we encourage members to be timely with their dues, dues are accepted until September 30, for inclusion in that particular year, and a membership card will be issued. (Remember, you're not joining early; i.e. if you pay your dues in August 2014, they are for the year 2014, and your dues are payable again in October 2015, for the year 2015.)

IOBGA INDUCTION PROCEDURES

Induction into IOBGA is by the administration of the oath, and may be done at any meeting or event of the organization. No matter who the inducting officer is, the 'authority of my office' is the authority derived from the fact that she is the Inducting Officer.

- OATH OF OFFICE for IOBGA Officers.

Please raise your right hand. Each of you have accepted the duties and responsibilities of the office to which you have been elected or appointed. Do you solemnly swear, that you will perform these duties and responsibilities, and any other duties assigned to you, to the best of your ability, and in accordance with the Bylaws of the International Order of the Blue Gavel Auxiliary? If you so agree, say, "I Do".

By the authority of my office, I now declare you duly installed to your respective offices.

A variety of formats for conducting the induction have been tried and found successful. The Inducting Officer should make the ceremony as genuine and sincere as possible, while still feeling comfortable with the proceedings. Whatever format is used, it should emphasize the importance of the occasion.

IOBGA SUPPLIES/REGALIA/STORES

IOBGA supplies are ordered through the District IOBGA or IOBGA Supply Officer, who in turn purchases them from the International Supply Officer. Districts may increase purchase prices to their members to cover freight or the expense of maintaining a local inventory for display, or operating expenses. The display of items stimulates interest in purchasing. Freight charges may or may not be reflected in published prices, but must always be collected. Districts set their own policy regarding when payment for goods ordered is required, that is, a deposit at the time the order is placed, or at the time the order is delivered. Our logos are registered trademarks.

Supplies such as letterhead and envelopes are available as well as burgees, sleeve patches, belts, golf shirts, jackets, etc. Many items can be further embroidered with your name or your boat's name.

INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS CENTER (IOC)

The IOC is the administration center of the IOBGA. It is tasked with maintaining the master database of members and other lists as directed by the Executive Committee. The IOC assists the IOBGA Treasurer in preparing and mailing IOBGA/IOBGA membership cards as required. The IOC also prepares the mailing labels for The Blue Gavel Log. It is staffed by part time clerical persons who are under the direction of the IOBGA Treasurer.

Many of the districts also publish newsletters. IOBGA District Presidents should work with these editors for the inclusion of IOBGA articles locally.

WEB SITE www.iobga.org

The IOBGA web site is managed by our own webmaster. The address is www.iobga.org. The web site includes the policy manual and bylaws, photos of meetings, and the names and e-mail addresses of officers. The IOBG has its own web site at www.iobg.org. Many districts also have web pages and/or FaceBook pages with their local information.

IOBGA FORMS

Standardized forms have been created to enhance and streamline the information in the organization. Copies of our forms are in this manual, or online at our website. You are encouraged to use photocopies of these forms, and save the originals for future duplication as needed.

REGISTERED TRADE MARKS

The insignia for the International Order of the Blue Gavel and the International Order of the Blue Gavel Auxiliary are registered trademarks. All supplies and regalia items bearing the IOBG and/or IOBGA insignia must be purchased from the IOBG/IOBGA Supply Officer(s).

IOBGA AWARDS

From time to time, individuals come to our attention who have made significant, ongoing contributions to our organization. These persons may or may not be members. The International may approve providing recognition to these individuals in the form of honorary membership or a service award, as is deemed fitting. Recognition may be at the International or District level, however it must always be approved by the International Executive Committee. A letter with supporting documentation should be forwarded to the International President for consideration.

IOBG HUMANITARIAN FOUNDATION (IOBG HF)

The Humanitarian Foundation was established in order to enable us to contribute to our larger community, as well as to worthwhile causes in local areas. The Foundation is set up to assist the Districts in their work for individual charities and the organization in support of a variety of causes. The IOBGHF is established as a '501 c 3', in the United States of America, in accordance with IRS regulations. Memorial or In Memoriam envelopes are available. Their website is www.iobghf.org .

CONCLUSION

Participation in IOBGA affairs at all levels is the name of the game, whether through attendance at Chapter, District, or International events or through holding offices at these various levels. Remember, it's up to you. What the Blue Gavel Auxiliary does for you is a direct result of what you put in to it. There are friendships to be made and worthwhile purposes to be served with a little creativity, a sincere interest, and a desire to build something good together with others who want to do the same.
